THE ROYAL SOCIETY OF EDINBURGH, founded in 1783, issued the first volume of its Transactions in 1789. The size of page then adopted was Demy 4to, which has been continued till now, when a slightly larger size has been resolved upon in order to make the Transactions of this Society uniform with those of the Royal Society of London.

During the Hundred Years which have elapsed since the publication of the first volume, other thirty-three have been issued of this Demy 4to size; and it has occurred to the subscribers that, as the change of the size of page may be said to commence a new series, and as few of the present members of the Society are likely to possess a complete set of the Transactions, it would be convenient to have for reference a List of Contents and Index of the completed series.

Messrs NEILL & Co. have had the honour of being Printers to the Society since its formation in 1783 (the present partners of the firm, ALEXANDER and PATRICK NEILL FRASER, for upwards of forty years), and they have, with approval of the Council, prepared this Index volume, which they beg respectfully to present to the Members of the Society, as a slight acknowledgment of their appreciation of the favour shown their firm for more than a Century.

As adding interest to the volume, they have prefixed a copy of the Dedication to the King, and the History of the Founding of the Society, with the Royal Charters granted in 1783 and 1811, and the Laws enacted in 1811.

The Volume, therefore, consists of DEDICATION, HISTORY, ROYAL CHARTERS, LAWS in 1811, CONTENTS of each Volume, OBITUARY NOTICES, INDEX OF AUTHORS, INDEX OF SUBJECTS, LIST OF PRESIDENTS, and LIST OF MEMBERS and LAWS at November 1889.
